

Tipping Guidelines, per person:

Items in green are pertinent to your trek, and should be presented on the last night of the trek. You will need to have this money with you as you depart for the trek.

Inca Trail (or other treks) Guide*- $10-20 USD, per trekker (example 10 trekkers x $10 each = $100)

Porters- get 30-35 Soles each (example 10 porters get 30 soles each, total from group of 8 trekkers = 300 soles divided by 8 = trekkers give 37.5 soles each) The total is then given to the Cook, who will be responsible for dividing it amongst all.

Cook – 50-65 Soles (example- 10 trekkers give 5 soles each for group total 50 soles)

Assistant guide (if needed) - each trekker gives 10 soles.

Horsemen, Caballeros (on other treks, not Inca trail)- group total 50 soles for head honcho, 30 for helpers/porters total

Guide for Train to Machu Picchu + tour - 10-15 soles

Sacred Valley tour guide- 10-15 soles per day.

Bus or van driver, please give 2-5 soles each day

Cusco half-day tour Guide- 5- 10 soles from each person.

People posing for photos- One Sol for each person in the photo. Tipping a llama is not necessary.

Weaving Cooperative, home visit, other demonstrations- Tip 2-3 soles if you do not purchase something

Hotel workers- use your own discretion

Restaurants- 10% or 15% max, check to see if a service charge is already included on the bill

Taxis- no tip usually, only in unusual circumstances. Taxis in Cusco are 3 soles, no more exception is to the airport.

One Moon Tour Leader- Donation to HoPe Foundation or to the Inca Porter Project

*If the same guide is used for the Sacred Valley and trek, tips may be combined and given after the Sacred Valley tour.
